I was deeply saddened as I read of the passing of this beautiful lady this morning. What a massive void in so many hearts her passing will create. So happy that I got to visit with Vena & Sonny at Coleman's last year. I cherish my special friendship through the years with this fantastic lady. RIP my Dear Vena.

The video was a great tribute to her with her family. Her family was everything to her! Aunt Vena had touched so many lives, not just in her family, but the patients she took care of the 25 years of working as a nurse. The Lord gained another angel 🙏. God bless her family! 🙏

Ma,' you never asked for a single thing...even when the suffering was unbearable. That took a courage that most fortunately don't have to come to terms with. Let them count their blessings. We rowed this boat of life together ma', and now the stern pulls a little harder to one side. I know the pain like few others, and I plead if there is a 'God,'....a 'Great Spirit,' that this great one takes all memory of hurt and suffering, and leaves you with only the happiest of memories. There are a lot of hearts breaking here on earth right now ma' because you no longer walk among us. We can't hear your sweet voice anymore....you know you always seemed to find the right thing to say to me when I thought that I couldn't take another step on my own journey.....

I can just never find the right words ma', so I talk to you through song. I hope that is just fine with everyone. Anyway, I know you would be cool with it. I can't see through the tears anymore ma' so enough from me. I will never forget you. Please don't forget me. God please let her be in peace now, and forever.

*Your 'favorite' son-in-law,
Gregg*

Rest easy that I will do my best to make life easier for Myra. I fear you took a piece of her heart.

“ I treasure my childhood memories of the Rogersons. Vena was an amazing Mom. She always looked so put together and kept her house spotless, which wasn't easy with three kids and several neighborhood kids running through. I spent many nights sleeping over with Myra. Vena took care of everyone. I remember she insisted on cleaning the tub before I got my bath. I said "you don't need to do that,it's only me. " Vena said, "Don't ever let company go into a dirty bathroom!" I still hear her voice every time I clean my bathroom. I will never forget her advice or the way she always made you feel important. I'll miss our visits in Kroger as she always took time to catch up and share a smile. Some people leave impressions on your heart forever. Sonny and Vena are two who have left imprints on mine. ❤️
