

Virginia M. Amos

December 4, 1916 - September 17, 2015

Amos, Virginia M., 98, of Route 7, New Martinsville, WV, died Thursday, September 17, 2015 at Genesis Health Care Center, New Martinsville. She was born December 4, 1916 in West, WV, the daughter of the late Charles F. and Edna Sivert Herman.

Virginia was a sales clerk for 15 years at Ruttenberg's and a member of the Steelton Church of Christ. She was a wartime worker in Delaware at Triumph Explosives, a division of Hercules Powder Company, making 40mm anti-aircraft ammunition, and also for Glen L. Martin (Lockheed) making fighter aircraft.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Everett L. Amos in 1988; three brothers, Willard, Dale and Ray Herman; and four sisters, Martha Goddard, Faye Hunter, Leota "Lee" Baker, and Ruby Sylvester.

Survivors include a son, Roger Amos of Washington, WV; eight grandchildren, Becky (Butch) Barton of Racine, OH, Mike (Tsugumi) Amos of Guam in the Navy, John Amos of Racine, Elizabeth Ann Amos of Ravenswood, WV, Seth Amos of Washington, WV, Amber Fields of Seattle, WA, Jody Carmichael of Wilmington, NC and Lindsey Carmichael of Parkersburg, WV; and a sister, Beulah Burton, of New Martinsville.

Family will receive friends on Saturday from 2-4 and 6-8 p.m. at Grisell Funeral Home & Crematory, 751 Third Street, New Martinsville, where funeral services will be held on Sunday at 2 p.m. with Evangelist Ed Melott officiating.

Burial to follow at Paden Memorial Gardens, New Martinsville.

“ God bless you all in the passing of such a beautiful lady. I know that she is in Heaven smiling down. Its funny, every time she came up here to visit her sister Leota (my Grandmom) she would bring West Virginia Mountaineer shorts, shirts and sweats for myself and my sister :) She will be greatly missed!!
