“ I can't comprehend just how sad you must feelFor the loss of someone you love.This sorrowful time must still feel unrealAnd you're looking for strength from above.I hope, from my heart, that your pain will decrease,That your spirit will gain strength again,And I pray that your faith will create inner peaceAnd that God will send blessings—Amen.Till then, if you need me to lighten your load,I'm waiting to come to your aid.Just call on me, and I'll walk down that road,Until the dark times start to fade.Deep condolences,Tina Frye

“ Mary was a wonderful person, and she will always be in my heart. I looked up to her in many ways.And anytime I had a problem she was always there to listen and to help. No matter how bad u felt or how upset you was she could always make you smile. Thank you for Everything , I love you dear friend,Rest In Peace.Those we love don't go away,They walk beside us every day,Unseen, unheard, but always near,Still loved, still missed, and very dear.

“ God looked around his garden and he found an empty place,He then looked down upon this earth and saw your tired face.He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest.God's Garden must be beautiful, He always takes the best.He knew that you were suffering, He knew that you were in pain.He knew that you would never get well on earth again.He saw that the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb,So he closed your weary eyelids and whispered"PEACE BE THINE".It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone,For parts of us went with you the day God called you home.
