Wayne was the dearest of hearts he meant so much to my dad Robert m.Harler whom passed away two years ago at the age of 93. They were good West Virginia fans and sat together in church he will be greatly missed.

“ My prayers for you all at this time of loss are that you will find peace and comfort in sharing memories with one another. John and I both enjoyed seeing Wayne in church, always with a smile. He was truly a disciple of Christ and our love goes out to his family, Sharon and Mandy and his extended family as well. May God hold you in the palm of his hand during this time of grieving. God Bless, Revs. John and Judy Flynn

“ My deepest sympathy to Sharon, Mandy and the rest of Wayne’s family. Wayne was such all around good guy. So kind, intelligent, fun and loyal. A true gentle-man. I am thankful that I had the privilege of working with him and worshipping with him. My best memories are the laughs we shared when I called him “Uncle Wayne”, due to our same last name. God rest his sweet soul.
