“ To Stacey, Michael, and the rest of Walker's family. Please accept my sincere condolences on this terrible tragedy. I remember Walker's shining eyes. I can only imagine how bright they must be, looking around Heaven!! How precious he was, always smiling at Sunday school, at the Paden City Nazarene Church. He was in good hands on this earth, now, he's in God's hands. Love you guys, and am praying for you. Love, Aunt Lois.

“ Stacey and family, there is never the right words when some one loses a child. Sometimes they are only ours for such a small amount of time. But leave their imprints forever. I know from experience they are kept in our hearts and minds forever. Grieve as long as you wish. Don't let others tell you when they think you should be done. It is yours alone to do. We love you all. Blessing.
