She fought a long, hard, and courageous battle with cancer, and was an inspiration to us all.

She was born March 30, 1957 in Wheeling, WV the daughter of Edna L. Wood of Moundsville, and the late Harold O. "Buck" Wood.

She was a former employee of Wheeling Hospital Medical Park, and a member of the American Cancer Society Relay for Life.

She loved the Pittsburgh Steelers, four wheeling, sitting on the porch drinking coffee, and going to her church, the Ash Avenue Church of God.

In addition to her father, she was preceded in death by her father and mother-in-law, William D. and Tessie West; and a brother-in-law, James Updegraff.

In addition to her mother, survivors include her husband of 33 years, Bill West; two daughters, April (Chad) Sheets of Atlanta, GA, and Billie Jo (Josh Powers) West of Moundsville; a sister, Robin Wood of Moundsville; sisters-in-law, Linda (Bubby) Aston of Cameron, WV, and Barbara Updegraff of Moundsville; and her three grandchildren who she loved with all her heart, Taylor Dawn West, Xander Daniel Powers; and soon to be grandson, Carter Race Sheets; several nieces and nephews; and her dogs who she loved, Bud and Bling.

Pam had so many family and friends; it is hard to express how much love we had for her. If there is one person in this world we could pattern ourselves after, it would be Pam.
