“ Big Willie was my Pappy. He was my favorite man in the world. He was more like a father to me than a grandfather. He used to ride me around on his back yelling Ayatolla Rock'n'Rolla and AyeAyeAye! He was perpetually grumpy, but also caring and loving. My fondest memory is the picture below. Me and Pappy cuddling on the couch. I love you Pappy, I'm glad you're finally pain free.

“ I don't think I'll ever meet a person more genuine than Willie. Didn't matter who you were he treated everyone the same. The 20 plus years we worked together at coke were some of the best times I had. Rest in peace my friend. Sorry for your loss Red, Chris, Michelle, Jennifer and the rest of family

“ There is so much to say about Uncle Willie aka Big Willie. He was one of the hardest workers I've known in my 51 years. He loved his family with everything he had in him. If he wasn't teaching us to ride a bike he was teaching you how to put a sinker and hook on a fishing pool. The sleepovers at Aunt Jeanie and his house are memories none of us will ever forget. He was everyone's Fulton Dad and he was BIG WILLIE married to his love Aunt Jeanie aka RED. They loved all of us Fulton kids like their own and was ALWAYS there no matter what was going on in their life's, they was ALWAYS there when we needed them. This world lost a Great Man yesterday and he will forever be missed and loved by so many. Save me a cold one and Thanks for the 51 years of love and once in awhile a swift kick in my butt to straighten me up
