“ To the family and friends of BILL,

So sorry to learn about Bill today. A man who was probably too nice to be a meter man, but definitely too good and honest by everyone who knew him to leave this earth so soon.

“ Such sad news to hear of the passing of our friend Bill Baker. I have known him since Grade School and as well I knew his family who resided in Fairview. Sending Prayers and Condolences to his family and friends in this dire time of need. You will always be remembered. Soar "HIGH" in Heaven Bill and please sit down with God and show him the correct way to write a parking ticket. You will be sadly missed by your family, friends, and your community. God Bless You....
