“ Rest in peace my dear papap you will be missed very much. The lord has taken you into his kingdom and he now can enjoy all of your many wonderful qualities. You can watch down from up above as we know you are now in peace and out of pain everything that was blurry before will be clear to you now. I am truly blessed to have a mother thru you and grandmas creation whom is an amazing mother and friend. I will take good care of her you have my word. Will miss all my visits especially riding the forwheeler and playing workshop in the garage with you. I always wanted to go fast and i remember every year being able to go a faster speed on the forwheeler you always were nervous about me being in the road and making sure i always watched for cars. Best grandpa around always smiling and full of life one of the sweetest people ive ever met. Would give you the shirt off his back if you needed it. For now dance in the clouds and enjoy eternal life we will meet again one day and I know your arms will be open as they always were. Love u papap. HUGS AND KISSES ALWAYS

“ Jr. and please pardon me for being so candid, was one of the most sincere man I have met during my lifetime. My best friend Jan introduced me to both Jr. and Phyliss back in the early 80's. He was a very humble man but bore many talents. I lost both of my parents early in life, but Jr. made me feel welcome into their family. He was a very caring father and husband. He had a calming effect on people and would also listen before making judgement. God bless you Jr. you had a great impact on many lives, mine included.
