“ Billy and Scott I am truly sorry for the loss of your Dad. It breaks my heart. I loved Papa Bill and Momma Becky deeply..as they were my own. They did so much for me. They taught me to drive a stick shift car at 15! So many memories. Find comfort in knowing they are in heaven together. I love you both! ❤️ Carol (Clark) Wolfe

“ Scott and family, Sorry about your dad. I haven't seen him for a few years, but always enjoyed talking to him when I did. My thoughts and sympathy are with all of you. We are never really grown ups till we are no longer someone's little boy or girl.

“ Bill was a great addition to the Moundsville City Council in the 1980's. He worked hard to improve the City and cared about the employees. I can recall going to Cheer's with Bill and a couple other Council members to discuss the prior meeting and laugh. I'm sure, William and Scott, he was as Great a Father, friend and leader at home. He will be missed and remembered.

Thank You Bill for everything you did to make this world a Better Place.
