“ Sharon & Family,
My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. I taught with Dave at Sanford ... and caused him a few gray hairs! He was a quiet, caring guy who strived to do his best .. and enjoyed his family and friends.

“ Dave became one of my closest friends when I returned from the Army in 1963. He and three other friends commuted to West Liberty State College for three years from Moundsville on the route we called “The Cow Path To Culture”.
We shared good times and bad. I remember struggling with Organic Chemistry and spending hours preparing for a big exam. When I complained about my ordeal, Dave replied “That’s Nothing! I have to learn to play Bingo on the Potato Pipe!” Dave always seemed to have a funny or witty thing to say or changing the words to a popular song, would sing a funny or raucous rendition until we threatened to throw him out of the car.
I will never forget Dave and still laugh when I hear a golden oldie he sang many years ago when we were young men. Dave, it wasn't fair that you're life had to end. I'll always keep you in my heart. Rest in peace my friend.
