

William "Bill" R. Yuncke

June 30, 1943 - March 24, 2024

William "Bill" R. Yuncke, age 80, of Wheeling, passed away peacefully in his sleep, on Sunday, March 24, 2024, at home, surrounded by his wife, children, and grandchildren.

He was born June 30, 1943 in Wheeling, son of the late William and Helen Koch Yuncke.

He was a coal miner with Valley Camp Coal and owner/operator of the Mighty Oak tree service company for 23 years; he was a carpenter; enjoyed working with his hands, hunting, camping, and could fix anything around the house; he loved spending time with his grandchildren. He was a U.S. Air Force Vietnam veteran, and a Catholic by faith.

In addition to his parents, he is reunited with his beloved cat, Kitty Kitty, and dog Harvey.

Survivors include his loving wife, of 60 years, Cleona Beaver Yuncke; one son: William Yuncke of Wheeling; one daughter: Theresa Voll of NC; and two grandchildren: Addison & Brayden; and his beloved cat: Kitty.

A Memorial Service will be held on Saturday, April 6, 2024, at 12 noon at the Hope United Methodist Church, 99 Valley Blvd., Wheeling, WV, followed by food and fellowship with the family until 2:00pm.

Arrangements entrusted to Grisell Funeral Homes & Crematory, 1 Ridgecrest Road, Bethlehem/Wheeling.
