If you could see me now you would understand why I'm no longer there. Remember my spirit that is the real me because I'm still very much alive. I've just been set free, OH, if you could only see! I have beheld our Father's face and I've touched my Savior's hand. All of Heaven's angels rejoiced as I entered the promised land. Beyond the gates of pearl I've walked on the golden streets. I've touched the walls of jasper and dipped my foot in the crystal sea. The beauty is beyond words and nothing could compare. I've even seen your mansion and someday I'll meet you there. Let Jesus be your guide because His Word will show you the way! So please don't cry because we will meet again someday.

“ I have known Wilma since 1962 and I want everyone who don't know it to be aware that she was a very special lady. I am a Christian today partly because of of the way she lived her life. She was a loving, caring, giving Christian who spent hours praying that God would bring me back into his fold. Her prayers were honored. If any who read this do not know Jesus I know she wants to see you in heaven. My Condolences to the family and I want you to know I mourn her loss with you.

“ To the family of Wilma!!! I only spoke with Wilma a few times.It didn't take me long to see what a beautiful person this lady was.Such a sweet spirit,she reminded me a lot of my grandmother,especially visiting her on her front porch.Toby has so much respect for her and was able to tell her a few weeks ago.I'm not real sure she remembered him but when he started talking about the Lord and what an impact she had on his life through her prayers she knew exactly what he was talking about.Wilma leaves a great legacy to her family and friends.She has earned her final reward.How can we not be happy for that???

“ I remember Wilma coming in all the time to see Charlie. Then even after Charlie passed away, she came in and visited with other residents, always putting a smile on their faces. She always had a hug for ya. What an inspiration to others she was. She was a saint if there ever was one.

I have great respect for my Mother, she loved and respected everybody. She never spoke a bad word against anybody, she was a regular in her church. Bragged she hadn't missed a Sunday in several years, If she planned on a trip to my house, I knew it would be on a Monday I would pick her up and have her back home by Friday. She love God and wanted everybody to know the Jesus she has known since the young age of 27. I miss my Mother daily, I think about calling her on special occasions, I wouldn't wish her back to this old world, if I could. She worked all of her life to be with her Lord and Savior! I love you Mom and will see you when I've finished my work here on earth.
