“ Art really was one of the sweetest funniest guys I ever met, Kim & Art, you truly raised an amazing gentleman, ever since day 1 of meeting all of you & feeling as if I was a part of this magical family, Art treated me like I belonged there, it will always stick out in my head a night were his 3 amazing sisters & I were all crammed on the couch watching TV & he was going out, before he left he kissed all of us on the top of our heads, including me, told his parents he loved them & was swiftly out the door. Hes sent me texts about how much he loves his sisters, which i'll never delete, & hes left a mark on my heart with his warm smile & hilarious jokes. I know this is a sad time for the family, & all of you know I can be there in an instant if you ever need anything, just need a shoulder... you were all there for me through my tragedies, I just pray I can be as good of an angel for you all as youve been for me... Art was raised in a magnificent home & will be smiling down on all of us.

“ Dear Heather, I would like to thank you for being there with my son and making sure that he was not alone that day. It truly means the world to me that out of the kindness of your heart you stayed there with him. He was a great young man with a kind heart, he was loved by many, and I am sure he thanks you for what you did for him. I would like to meet with you. I am going to leave my email address (kstar1066comcast.net) if you would like to leave me your phone number. There are not enough words to express my gratitude for you being there for him. May God always bless and watch over you and your family.Love, The Woods Family

“ Art was such a kind heart and a wonderful friend to my oldest son Daniel.We used to live just down the road from Art. On Daniel’s first day of Kindergarten, he was so scared. He looked at me with teary eyes and said, “Bye Mommy.” When he looked around and saw the bus full of kids, and the driver told him he needed to find a seat, he began to cry. A little boy spoke up and said, “You can sit with me. We’ll be friends.” That boy was Art, and Daniel sat with him everyday for years. Daniel came home and told me about his new “bus friend”. He always called him that. It made me laugh because it sounded so much like best friend. I asked him about it one day and he said, “Doesn’t matter, he’s the same to me. My best, bus friend.” That was 12 years ago. He will be greatly missed.I know Art is looking down on us from Heaven. I’m praying for your family's strength and comfort. I know he is safe in the arms of the Lord and we will see him again.Tommy, Daniel, Forrest & Elsie Robbins

“ Dear Art and Kimmie, I cannot express to you how sorry I am for the loss of your son. The only solace I can offer to you is that I believe that young Arthur went straight to heaven. I don't pretend to understand God's plan for us however, I believe He was desperate for angels and that is why Lil Art was taken from us at such a young age. I got to know Lil Art after the deaths of Uncle Herb and Herbie. I can assure you that I have never met such a kind and thoughtful young man. He was always concerned about his family and how everyone was coping with the losses you had to endure. It was then I understood how wonderful Art was and that the two of you should be very proud of the young man you raised as well as being proud of your daughters. All of your children are honest, kind and caring. Please excuse my absence; it is due to ongoing health issues but know that my thoughts and prayers are with you during this time of loss. With deepest sympathies, Wendy

“ Dear Family, My name is Heather. I never got the chance to actually meet your son Arthur. I did however hold his face in my hands on this tragic day. I was driving with my husband and 2 very young boys in my car. We happened to get there after the actual accident. My husband went to him and yelled for my help. I work in the medical field you see so he thought I could do more. I held your son's hand and his face in my hands and talked to him until the emts got there. I as a parent would want to know that my son was not alone and I reassure you that he indeed was not alone. I was there and never left his side til the emts got there. I want you to know that your son as well as you and your family will be in my heart always. May you dear Art rest in peace and always know I think of you everyday. I am so sorry for your loss I can tell he was an amazing person!!!! With my deepest sympathies and my heart felt prayers Heather Brown

“ As a teacher, I had the opportunity to have had Arthur in sixth grade at McNinch Elementary. Not often do you meet a student who possesses so many wonderful attributes; kind and caring, willing and eager to learn, and fun-loving. Arthur had a knack for art and was willing to persevere in tasks he undertook. I used one of his art projects, a knight in armour, each year as a model for the students. I also remember him being named "Student of the Six Weeks" and how truly deserving he was of that honor. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. Shawna Zervos
