“ French tips versus French tits: Oh, the delightful memories of your Mom spring to mind. Cocktails by the pool with her legs propped up on the cooler, soaking up the sun and "dishing" about anything and everything. Always with a Mother's vigilant "air" when it came to her children, whom I whole-heartedly admit are first-rate individuals she was so very proud of. In the end she knew what she liked and she went for it, particularly. Her devoted children bent over backwards for her to satisfy her wishes and cravings. There were but a few things she could enjoy with her limitations, but, by jove, whether it came to a special kind of fish, or margarita or chili without the beans she relished the simple things in life and loved her children for all that they did for her and the loving souls they came to be. I'm thankful Jean is out of pain, please extend my sympathy to your sister, Karen, and brother Bill as well. Love, Leah

“ Dear Bill and Kim: Please accept my deepest condolences on the loss of mother, Jean. She was such a wonderful person, who I thought a great deal of. My mother also enjoyed their conversations, whether by phone or by catching up with one another at mass. Always cherish your sweet memories of your mom, which seems somehow to help with the loss. Please know you are all in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time and the days ahead. God Bless, Lisa McDowell and Joe Hill
